

STAPLE #M8 | Clean Slate MOVE ON Chart

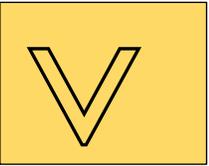

Directions: When a student comes back to the learning environment, whether after a one-on-one conference, the next day, or several days, provide these essential steps in the re-entry plan called the MOVE-ON method.

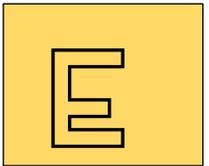

Meet with the student in a conference.

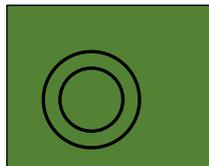

Open up the conversation and hear the student's point of view about re-entry.

Validate the student's point of view by restating what was said.

Explain anything that is confusing or unclear.

Offer concrete steps for meeting expectations.

Nurture the student/teacher relationship.
